Munawar Public School Participated in AFAQ Education Expo-Competition in Khaplu. The event was conducted at Khaplu Degree College. There were forty government and private institutes from all over District Ghanche. The education expo was conducted with various dimensions. One was to compare the student's capacities in National Songs and speeches, second, was Painting, third was to compare in Quiz and fourth was to compare in Model and designs. Munawar School participated in four areas of competition as speech, quiz, national songs and painting. They observe the district level competition and its procedure. The students enjoyed and scored a tremendous result over than expectation of the teachers.

Painting: - Munawar School participated in this competition with three students from level three, four and fifth. There were forty different school's competitors. MPS scored fourth, fifth and ninth positions amongst 130 students from the forty schools.

Quiz: - There were one hundred and twenty students from forty different schools in this competition. MPS participated in this segment with their three students, Amreen, Saqlain and Maryambi of four and eighth level respectively. The scoring card was as Amreen got fourth position while Saqlain scored 9th position and Maryambi got 21st position among one hundred and twenty competitors.

Speech :- The forty schools has one speakers on the given topic to deliver speeches. The speech competition was quiet awesome and fantastic segment in rest of all segments of the event. MPS participated and its representative was a female student "Rida Khanam" of class 8th. She got 13th position in the event from rest of all forty boys and girls.

National Song: - The national song was competed through tableau on given topics. There were lots of color and too little students performing on the stage by taking national flags. They were waving it with a blink of smile on their faces confidently. This competition was the best performance segment in the auditorium. Every audience were clapping and enjoyed with the little champs' performance. MPS participated in this segment with seven students by having one male and rest of six female little champs. The MPS team of national song performed well but unfortunately competition was so tough to observe and at last they scored the 16th position amongst forty competitors.

There was closing ceremony of the event in the college auditorium. The chief guest was come from Peshawar especially to participate in the event. He addressed to the audience and quoted that “You people are the luckiest people on the earth because you have peace in free. You people are polite and intelligent compare to any region of Pakistan. We have the peace in most expensive budget but you all have in FREE here. We have a fear to left open our houses doors at daylight but here the business man left open their shops and going to pray or anywhere else with a free mind but people don’t steal anything from that shop. I argue to you all that please give us this peaceful environment lesson and are a brand ambassador of peace in Pakistan.”

Later on deputy commissioner encouraged the future talent of District Ghacnhe. He appreciated the event and participated schools’ students and teachers. He left a message to the students that “study hard for just to establish a good Nation”. The college principal and rest of guests appreciated the students for their talents and performance. The guest awarded position holders with shields, cash prize, certificate and trophies. The MPS Principal Muhammad Khan received the award of “Principal Acknowledgment” from the guests.
